

Lodi, California, August 17, 1914.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi convened in regular session at 8:00 p.m., there being present Trustees Black, Folendorf, Deaver and Keeney. President Hale was absent.

Trustee Deaver was elected president pro tem.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved as corrected.

The application of J.W. Collars Co., Inc., for electric current for light and power at 25 North Sacramento street was, on motion, referred to Superintendent Herring.

August Siegelhoff, in a communication to the board, applied for a position at the water works, which communication was ordered filed.

The following building permits were granted:

R. Seiner, woodshed on lot 20, block 2, Forrest's Addition.

C.W. Bucher, dwelling on lot 22, Block B, Lodi Barnhart Tract.

Clark Bryde, private laundry at 301 West Oak Street.

Louie Kroh, dwelling on lot 15, block 3, Lodi Barnhart Tract.

I.T. Mason, cooling tower on roof of brick warehouse on lots 5 and 6, block 22, City of Lodi.

The report of Plumbing Inspector Herring for the month of July was read and ordered filed.

Upon motion the Clerk was instructed to communicate with County Surveyor Quail in regard to paving Cherokee Lane where intersected by East Pine street to connect with the paving of the latter.

W.B. Stannard appeared before the board with a request that the hitching post be removed from in front of his store on West Pine street on the grounds that the constant hitching of horses there created a nuisance. The matter was referred to the Health Officer for investigation.

Mr. Stannard also called attention to the sign board in front of the Opera House as being unsightly and in a dangerous condition. Referred to the City Marshal for investigation and report.

The matter of the application of Frank Matsumoto for a table liquor license was then taken up. It was moved by Trustee Black, seconded by Trustee Folendorf, that the license be denied. The motion was carried by the following vote: Ayes-Black, Folendorf, Keeney and Deaver. Hale-absent.

The Clerk was instructed to communicate with the Municipal Service Bureau of Berkeley in regard to legal service for the city.

The Clerk was also instructed to call the attention of Superintendent Herring to the matter of laying conduits across intersecting streets for electric wires to connect proposed electroliers on East Pine street.

Upon motion the Board adjourned to meet again Monday, August 24, 1914, at 8:00 p.m.

N.J. Black
Clerk of the Board.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi convened in adjourned session at 8:00 p. m., Trustees Black, Keeley and Folendorf consenting to roll call. Trustee Folendorf was elected to preside. Trustee Desver arrived later and was noted present. Hale was absent.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The following building permits were granted:

American Pure Food Company, shed Block 71, Barnhart Tract.

Fred C. Maier, dwelling for Max Leuschner on Lot 11, Block 49.

The following application for positions were read and filed:

A. N. Hostetler, for position at the water works.

George F. Seibert, police officer.

J. A. Swallow presented a budget for the Carnegie Library for the coming year asking an appropriation of $2505. Library Trustee George W. Lemoin addressed the Board in favor of the increased amount urging that the library was badly in need of more books, more shelving and repairs and requesting that the Trustees provide a sum sufficient for the growing needs of the institution.

ORDINANCE NO. 81.

Entitled, "An Ordinance Levying Taxes in the Year 1914, in Provision of Revenue For the Fiscal Year Beginning July 1, 1915," was introduced and read and upon motion regularly made, seconded and carried was laid on the table for not less than five days according to law.

Robert L. Moore requested the use of the City Hall Tuesday, September 1, for permanent organization of the Southern Society, which upon motion was granted.

Upon the report of City Marshal Coleman regarding the sign board in front of the Lodi Opera House discussion indicated that in the opinion of members of the Board the sign was unsightly, unnecessary and not in conformity with the ordinances. Referred to the Marshal for his attention.

Messrs. M. O. Holt, D. W. Bird and H. G. Miller, as a committee from the Chamber of Commerce, requested an appropriation from the City of $500 for advertising purposes. The request was taken under advisement.

Upon motion the Board adjourned.

Attest:

H. S. Clark
City Clerk.
